FIRST CHANUKAH CANDLE SUNDAY EVE, DEC. 24

The first candle is placed at the extreme right of the Menorah. Each night following, an additional candle is placed to the left of the previous one. However, the order of lighting the candles is from left to right — so that the added candle is kindled first.

On Friday (the candles should be large enough to last over an hour — Sabbath candles are therefore recommended) we light the Chanukah candles before the Sabbath candles; on Saturday night the Chanukah candles are kindled at home after Havdalah is made.

Benedictions Over The Candles

Baruch atah ado ... elokainu melech ha'olom asher kide'shanu bemitzvosav vetzivanu lehadlik ner shel Chanukah.

Baruch atah ado ... elokainu melech ha'olam she'assah nisim la'avosainu bayamim hahame bazeman hazeh.

Blessing recited only at the first kindling:

Baruch atah ado ... elokainu melech ha'olam shehecheyanu vekiye'manu vehigi'anu laze'man ha'zeh.

CHANUKAH NOTES (Continued)

Chanukah commemorates one of the major turning points in Jewish history. In the year 168 B.C.E., the Syrian Emperor Antiochus Epiphanus launched a campaign of religious persecution against the Jews. His soldiers desecrated the Holy Temple in Jerusalem. For three years Judah the Maccabee led a valiant army of loyal followers against the mighty Syrian legions. After routing the enemy hordes, they rededicated the Holy Temple and reestablished the traditional worship. This consecration was celebrated for eight days. To this day we kindle Chanukah lamps to celebrate not only the events of the hoary past but also as a symbol of the Almighty's mighty deeds throughout the ages.

ASARAH BETEVES FAST
TUESDAY, JANUARY 9

This fast commemorates the beginning of the fatal siege of Jerusalem by the armies of Nebuchadnezer, King of Babylon, which culminated in the destruction of the first Temple in 586 B.C.E. Selichos prayers are said in the morning and a penitential portion of the Torah is read both at the Shacharis and at the Minchah services.

We sorrowfully record the passing of the following of our Congregational Family and extend our sympathy to their dear ones:
