OUR HONORED CHASSANIM FOR SIMCHAS TORAH

FRANK E. BISINGER

DAVID KAMERMAN

RABBI HILLEL M. REICHEL

David Kameran, the Chassan Torah, will be called to the closing Aliyah of the Torah. Mr. & Mrs. Kameran joined our Congregation about 40 years ago when they moved into our community. He served as a member of our Board and his wife, Martha, is a Women's League Board member. A lawyer of note and a Talmudic student, he has been involved together with his wife in many religious organizations.

Frank E. Bisinger is our Chassan Brayshis. He will be called for the first Aliyah in Genesis. This is the 25th year that Mr. Bisinger has been a member of the W.S.I.S., thanks to his marriage to Leona, daughter of our late, devoted member Henry Kessler who conducted our auxiliary High Holy Days services. Retired from the Union Pacific Railroad and a subsequent position with Merrill Lynch, he enjoys his hobbies as well as serving as Recording Secretary of our Men's Club.

Rabbi Hillel M. Reichel, son of our Rabbi and Rebbetzen, will be the Chassan Maftir and will chant the Torah from the Book of Joshua. After studying at ITRI in Israel he was ordained by the Mirrer Yeshiva in Brooklyn where he is continuing his advanced Talmudic studies. He also earned his Masters in Business Administration at Columbia University. Hillel and his wife Devora, librarian at the Prospect Park Yeshiva High School, have two daughters Gitty and Rivka.

The Chassanim will be the hosts of a festive Seudah Shlishis on Saturday, October 31st following Minchah at 3:15 o'clock. All our congregants, men and women, are welcome.

WE WELCOME NEW MEMBERS

Join Our Succos Services

On Monday eve, October 12th, we usher in the Festival of Tabernacles. Following the solemn High Holidays, it is in contrast a time of thanksgiving and joy.

Breakfast in the Succah will be available following each of the weekday morning services.

The Succah consists of three or four walls and special covering (sechach). All materials are proper for the walls of the Succah provided that they are capable of withstanding a normal wind. The sechach is limited to that which grows but is detached from the soil, such as severed tree branches, strips of wood, bamboo and straw. The materials, however, must never have acquired the status of utensils.

The sechach should be applied after the walls are in place. A Succah built under a tree or under a permanent cover is invalid.

The Four Species

The preferred manner of performing the mitzvah is to wave the lulav in all six directions: four horizontal and upwards and downwards; each waving consisting of three movements to and fro.

The meaning of these na'anu'im (wavings) is given in the Talmud: "One waves them to and fro to Him who owns the four directions; up and down, to Him who owns heaven and earth. That is to say: the four species are all an allusion to G-d's having created all existence, and that there is naught besides Him. One waves them to and fro in order to restrain harmful winds; up and down, in order to restrain harmful dews." Succos is the time of judgment for water and rain for the entire year and the four species give symbolic expression to our prayers for the blessing of water (the esrog needs more water than other fruits of the tree; palm branches grow in valleys which have an abundance of water; myrtles and willows grow near water).

The Sages have decreed that the mitzvah of the four species should not be performed on the Sabbath, even if the first day of the festival falls on the Sabbath, lest one come thereby to violate the prohibition of carrying in a public domain on the Sabbath.

The mitzvah of lulav applies only by day and not by night.

Hoshana

After Hallel is said during the days of Succos or after musaf, depending on local custom, a Torah scroll is taken out of the Ark and brought to the bimah (pulpit). The cantor and the congregation say aloud: "Hoshana" four times as indicated in the prayer books. Afterwards a prescribed prayer is said each day; each of these prayers follows the alphabetical order. Simultaneously the entire congregation circles the bimah with esrog and lulav in hand. During the first six festival days, there is one hakafah (circling) while on Hoshana Rabbah (the last day of Succos) there are seven hakafos.

This custom recalls the Sanctuary where the Cohanim encircled the altar with praise

MEN'S CLUB NOTES

SUCCAH MEETING SUNDAY OCTOBER 18TH
MEMBERS OF THE MEN'S CLUB ARE INVITED TO A BREAKFAST MEETING IN THE SUCCAH ON SUNDAY, OCTOBER 18TH AT 10:00 A.M.
SPECIAL GUEST: CANTOR PETER L. BARRON.

OUR SUCCAH BEAUTIFUL

The Mr. & Mrs. League Succah Decorating Committee headed by Chairman Sally Goodgold and Co-Chairman Rose Schwarz, will decorate the Succah on Saturday and Sunday nights, October 10th and 11th. Helping hands are welcome.

Our Women's League will again defray the entire expenses for the decoration of our Succah as well as the Kiddush and Motzi with the Men's Club for the entire congregation during the Yom Tov.

and joy once each day and seven times on Hoshana Rabbah.

The Aravah

It was a custom of the Prophets Chagai, Zechariah and Malachi to take an aravah, to recite a special prayer over it, and then beat it on the ground. Unlike other Rabbinic commandments over which a blessing is recited, no blessing is recited over the aravah.

The aravas (extra willows) which are taken on that day after the esrog and lulav are set aside also alludes to prayer. We possess neither the taste of Torah, nor the fragrance of mitzvah, neither the esrog nor the lulav, nor the hadas — we are all like this aravah. What then do we have? Only mouths with which to pray like this aravah similar to a mouth.

It is customary to stay awake all night and to say Tikun from the book of Dvarim, the Tehilim, and to "unite" the night and the day through Torah and prayer.

The Prayer for Rain

"During the Succos Festival there is judgment over water."

Beginning with Musaf of Shmini Atzeres, we include MASHIV HARUACH UMOREID HAGESHEM in the Shmone Esrei. An announcement is made before the silent Musaf to include the MASHIV HARUACH which is recited until Passover.

It would have been proper to mention rain (Mashiv haruach umorid hageshem) on the first day of the Festival. Nevertheless, we do not explicitly pray for rain before Shmini Atzeres.

The Sages explain that the fall of rain during the Festival would prevent the fulfillment of the mitzvah of Succah. For this reason rain is not mentioned until the people of Israel have left their Succos and reentered their homes.
